

*PEV cordially invites you to a day at the Shaw Festival
featuring
"HARVEY"
Thursday, September 16, 2010*

A new look at this Pulitzer Prize
winning play
made into a 1950 classic
film starring Jimmy Stewart.

*"I always have a wonderful time,
wherever I am,
whoever I'm with."*

Please join us for a wine country cultural and culinary feast.

We will lunch at

Ristorante Giardino

located in the Gate House Hotel

After lunch there will be a brief period of free time to shop, walk in the downtown core or linger at the table with friends.

We will meet across the street from the restaurant at the Royal George Theatre to enjoy Mary Chase's prize-winning play, "HARVEY", directed by Joseph Zeigler.

Everyone wants to meet Elwood Dowd and his friend Harvey but Harvey is a six-foot invisible rabbit and Elwood's sister wants Harvey gone!

The question is —does the world need another "normal" chap or more Harveys?

Register: Call PEV office at 416-928-3125

Price: A minimum donation of $125.00 is requested, payable to PEV.

A tax receipt will be issued for the applicable amount

We gratefully acknowledge Marilyn Guest for organizing this event on behalf of PEV.
