

Seminar for Professional Women

Rediscovering WORK

October 19, 2006

Time:
6–8 p.m.

Location:
Intercontinental Hotel
220 Bloor St., W., Toronto

Registration:
Cocktails & Hors D'Oeuvres
Speaker
Questions/Discussion

6:00–6:30 p.m.
6:30–7:00 p.m.
7:00–7:40 p.m.
7:40–8:00 p.m.

Develop the TGIM attitude! (Thank God It's Monday!)
Gain real satisfaction from your professional work!
Don't miss this event! Come hear our speaker, Shivanthi Sandrasagra
(MBA, BSc), share her personal and professional insights on
"Rediscovering Work."

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Shivanthi Sandrasagra, MBA, BSc. (Chemical Engineering) is a Business/Financial Analyst with Bristol-Myers Squibb. She has previous experience as both a Product and Project Manager at various corporations. She maintains a voluntary position as Director of Pharillon Cultural Centre in Montreal, where she has been involved in organizing a lecture series for professional women called "Dreams Take Flight." Shivanthi has also acted as a project manager at Fonteneige University Centre for Women for five years where she directed day to day operations, proposed and organized conferences, co-founded a volunteer training program for elementary school students and trained counselors for summer camp.

For more information please contact Virginia Nanouris at 416-928-3125 or via e-mail at: seminars@pev.ca

REGISTRATION

Seminar Cost: $55 Number Attending: _____

Name: _____

Address: _____

Tel: _____

E-Mail: _____

Payment Method:

VISA MasterCard Exp. Date: ____ / ____

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Signature _____

Cheque (Payable to: PEV)
Mail to: 77 Charles St. W.
Toronto, ON M5S 1K5

