Creating Bright & Cheerful Homes St. Josemaria's Vision of Family Life

Our guest speaker will reflect on St. Josemaria's vision for the family and principles to create bright and cheerful homes. These will offer encouragement for each of us to strengthen our own families and those around us, a timely gift in this Year of the Family.

Following the talk, we will share a video clip of Canadian initiatives inspired by St. Josemaria.

Nicole Scheidl, LLB, LLM, is the CEO and co-founder of Fit Minds, a Canadian company providing cognitive stimulation therapy programming for seniors in North America and Australia. Her breadth of professional experiences includes legal practice at Cunningham Swan, Lower-school principal at Hawthorn School for Girls, as well as Business Development positions in Canada and the US. She is married to Andrew Scheidl, MSM, and they have seven children.
