The spiritual activities of Kintore College and Cultural Centre are entrusted to Opus Dei, an institution of the Catholic Church.

Fr. Eric Nicolai was born in 1963 in Montreal, Canada, where he grew up. His family was non-practicing Lutheran from Germany. When he was a teenager, he converted to Catholicism thanks to the help of a friend who talked to him about the Bible and brought him to Mass regularly. He graduated with a degree in Art History from McGill University in Montreal in 1987 and then did a Masters at Laval university in Quebec City which he completed in 1990. He later went to Rome to study theology and was ordained for Opus Dei in 1994. He speaks 6 languages. He is now chaplain of Ernescliff College, a student residence in Toronto, and of Hawthorn Girls School in Toronto. Since the pandemic hit, he started to post his meditations on his YouTube channel, www.youtube.com/ericnicolai, and on his podcast called "In Your Presence", which can be found on Apple Podcasts, Spotify, or wherever you listen to your podcasts.
