

" The STRIDE workshop made me cherish close, in-person relationships more and realize how much we depend on each other to be loved and to love. I also had a ton of fun making new friends and learning new life skills. This event has given me greater hope for the future and instilled more confidence that I can make a positive impact on the world, starting with those around me."

- STRIDE Workshop 2022
Participant